THE BRITISH INTERNATIONAL HISTORY GROUP
TWENTY EIGHTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE
UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH
8-10 September 2016

The Group
The British International History Group is organised under the auspices of the British International Studies Association (BISA). The Association acts as a professional body for teachers, researchers and practitioners interested in the area of International Studies, including International History. The Annual Conference of the British International History Group brings together International Historians from a variety of backgrounds and offers them the opportunity to exchange views.

The Conference
The main work of the conference takes place in panels on Thursday afternoon, Friday and Saturday morning. There will also be a round table on Thursday afternoon and a keynote lecture on Friday evening. The Annual General Meeting will be held during the conference. The conference dinner will be held at the Playfair Library, Old College.
